Click here : <https://forms.gle/5MyFy4E6JKgrekRUA>

Note: If any of your requirements are missing or incomplete, please email the missing documents directly to admissions@pnu.edu.ph as soon as possible. This will ensure your submission is properly tracked, reviewed, and included in the evaluation process.

Failure to notify the Admissions Office may result in delays or exclusion from the next steps of the application process. Applicants who do not submit the complete requirements and send proper notification will not receive their test permits.

We highly encourage you to double-check your submission before proceeding to avoid unnecessary delays.

Applicants who may require special accommodations during the admission test—such as a sign language interpreter for the deaf, a test reader guide for the blind, or support for mobility challenges—are encouraged to contact or email the Admissions Office in advance to ensure appropriate assistance is provided.

Interview Procedure

1) After passing the PNUAT, you will receive an email instructing you to fill out the Interview Form which will help the faculty interviewer know more about you as an applicant. Deadline can be found in the admissions schedule. Failure to respond to this form means you will no longer continue with your application and your slot will be given to another applicant.

3. Wait for the assigned interviewer to send your interview schedule using the email you indicated in the Interview Form.

Note:

- Failure to comply on or before the said schedule will forfeit your application.
- We respectfully ask that you refrain from sending multiple emails to the Admissions Office, as this creates delays and complications in our process. Rest assured, all applicants will be scheduled within the interview period.

4) After your interview, please wait for the Admissions Office to release the list of interview passers through the Facebook page and email.

5) After passing the interview, you will get an email about the last phase of the screening process: Medical Evaluation.

ADMISSIONS
